

Bio on Loy McKeithen, Senior Counsel at McGuireWoods

Having chaired uptown Charlotte N.C development entities, he is active in urban development. He was instrumental in the development and construction of the Charlotte Performing Arts Center, the Charlotte Convention Center, the Carolina Panthers NFL Football Stadium, North Carolina Dance Centre and the Fifth Third Financial Center. He has personally developed two large uptown Charlotte residential projects, and renovated existing buildings for commercial and office use. Prior to practicing law, Loy served as captain of the U.S. Army from 1961 to 1963. Loy has also served on 13 not-for-profit boards that were national, statewide and local, specifically within the arts space and healthcare field. Charlotte boards that he has served on include ASC, United Way, Charlotte Symphony, Blumenthal Performing Arts Center, Charlotte Ballet, Historic Rosedale and Charlotte Uptown Development Corporation (now Center City Partners).
