

Cornelius News

Newsmakers Breakfast Feb. 23 features chairman of Cornelius Arts Center

By Newsroom · February 20, 2017 · Post a comment

WESSLING

Greg Wessling, the chairman of the board of directors for the Cornelius Arts and Community Center, a non-profit that will run the proposed Cornelius Arts Center, will be the speaker at the Business Today Newsmakers Breakfast Feb. 23 at The Peninsula Club.

A nationwide search for an executive director is under way. The executive director will help with the fundraising process, and lead the multimillion-dollar arts center independently from the town. The town has paid $1.495 million for land in downtown Cornelius for the new arts center, funds for which were approved by voters in 2013. The $20.4 million bond package included $4 million for town center redevelopment, not including the land.

Newsmakers Breakfasts are an open-forum Q&As with people who make the news. Anyone can ask a question.

Doors open at 7:15 a.m. for networking. The buffet-style breakfast gets under way at 7:30 a.m. The Q&A begins at 8 a.m. and concludes at 9 a.m. The cost to attend, $12, includes a full country breakfast. Reserve a seat at 704-895-1335 with Visa or MasterCard.

Our presenting sponsor is Dixie Dean of Allen Tate. Other sponsors include The Knox Group, Donna Moffett Accountants, Carolina Trust Bank and Davidson Wealth Management.

Related

