

Friday, 17 March 2017 07:02

Cornelius Arts Center board is looking for help

Written by Staff

CORNELIUS, N.C. -- The Cornelius Arts and Community Center (CACC) Board is in the process of gearing up for a community awareness effort, a capital funds campaign and search for the Center's executive director, according to CACC Chairman Greg Wessling. To assist in the administration of the effort, the group is seeking to retain part-time administrative help to arrange meetings, keep records and generally assist in organizing related events.

Applicants should have good computer and social media skills with experience in general office management. Those interested should send a resume with references to info@corneliusarts.com or mail resume to Cornelius Arts, Box 1443, Cornelius, NC 28031.

Tweet

Like

Be the first of your friends to like this.

G+

---